- Build character through sport to help children embed British values such as democracy, the rule of law, individual liberty and mutual respect.
- To commit to building our 'culture of safety' in which the children are protected from abuse, harm, and radicalisation.
- Respond promptly and appropriately to all incidents or concerns regarding a child's safety. Comply with child protection procedures and all relevant legislation issued by us and the school you are working with.

Prime responsibilities.

- To lead in the delivery of high-quality primary school PE lessons during term time.
- To plan a holistic approach for each unique individual.
- Be ready - appropriate planning, resources and adaptive equipment must be collected to prepare for inclusive PE lessons .
- To deliver inclusive PE lessons and activities tailored to the individual needs of each unique child for the maximum impact regardless of ability.
- To evaluate children's progress and report back to the class teacher.
- To carry out registration and de-registration duties.
- To lead extracurricular sports clubs.

Qualifications.

- QTS or sports degree or
- At least 2NGB level two qualifications and two years' experience in delivering PE and sport in school.

Attributes:

- The ability to effectively and efficiently communicate both orally and in writing.
- Punctual, reliable, and trustworthy
- Excellent communication skills, with children, colleagues, advisors, and parents/carers
- Enthusiasm for working with young children.
